AGENDA

8:00 am – 9:00 amRegistrations and welcome coffee*9:00 am – 9:45 am*Opening keynote addresses

Global leaders from the fields of impact management and standards-setting will share perspectives on how we can work together to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals.

9:45 am – 11:00 amPanel Discussion: How standards can be a force for good

A conversation among leading standard setters to reflect on the power of standards to teach, to change culture, and to promote responsible action.

Includes time for questions & answers with the audience.*11:00 am – 11:30 am*Coffee/networking break*11:30 am – 1:00 pm*Case study discussion – Options 1 and 2

Each session will dive deeply into a case study from a specific region in which stakeholders at all levels are working together toward social goals, supported by the use of standards and effective implementation supports. Case study offerings will total four, from which each participant will choose two (one from the pre-lunch options, and one from the post-lunch options). Case study offerings will reflect relevant, real-world experiences—what worked well, what could have gone better, and lessons learned—and have been designed to provide a diversity of geographic and business-model perspectives.
